Forty-three artists from across Bahrain gathered at the Bahrain Financial Harbour's Harbour Gate last night for the launch of the 'Crosscurrent' Fusion of Art and Culture exhibition aimed at celebrating cultural diversity.

It was inaugurated with a ribbon-cutting by Bahrain Authority for Culture and Antiquities director general of the Culture and Arts Directorate Shaikha Hala bint Mohammed Al Khalifa in the presence of Philippine Ambassador Alfonso A Ver.

The expo, organised by the Filipino Creatives Bahrain group, features 200 paintings, sculptures, visual and digital art as well as films.

The colourful showcase runs until December 15 and is open for viewing from 9am to 9pm.
