

BAHRAIN'S 3Gs EXPO FEATURES PHL PROPERTY INVESTMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Ms. Karen Remo, CEO of New Perspective Media in Dubai, giving an overview of the dynamic and robust economic climate in the Philippines and mentioned the recent successes of the Duterte administration, particularly his visit to the Middle East countries of Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and Qatar earlier this month.

(Manama) – The biggest triple header annual event in the Kingdom of Bahrain, the Gulf Property Show, Gulf Construction Expo and Gulf Interiors Exhibition (3Gs Expo) which was held from 25 to 27 April 2017, featured a seminar on property investment opportunities in the PHL through a presentation delivered by Ms. Karen Remo, Editor-in-Chief of the Filipino Times in Dubai and CEO of New Perspective Media. The seminar was organized by the Al Hilal Group in cooperation with the Philippine Embassy in Manama, Bahrain and was held during the first day of the 3Gs Expo at the Bahrain International Exhibition and Convention Center.

Ms. Remo's presentation centered on the positive economic outlook of the PHL, which included reports on investments from the Middle East which resulted from the successful State visits of President Duterte in Saudi Arabia, Bahrain and Qatar. She also discussed property development projects and investment opportunities in the Philippines, as well as the consumer behavior of Overseas Filipinos.
