

THE PHILIPPINE EMBASSY JOINS IN THE CELEBRATION OF BAHRAIN NATIONAL DAY

15 December 2018 – The Philippine Embassy in Manama Bahrain joined the celebration of Bahrain National Day at the National Stadium under the Patronage of His Majesty King Hamad bin Isa Al Kahlifa.

The event was participated in by different Embassies, Religious communities, clubs, schools and Universities. Each organization was assigned a stall to display products, as well as highlight the tourism potential of their countries.

The Philippine Embassy stall featured Philippine handicrafts and food items. The booth also showed videos on the visit to Bahrain of President Rodrigo R. Duterte and other promotional materials on popular PHL tourism destinations.

Children from different schools, clubs and societies of different nationalities rendered entertainment and were provided activities throughout the day. Labour and Social Development Minister H. E. Jameel Bin Mohammed Ali Hamaidan visited the Philippine booth. END
