MANAMA

Information Bulletin No. AAV-016-2016

03 April 2016

To all Filipino Registered Overseas Voters in Bahrain,

The Philippine Embassy informs you that the Commission on Elections (COMELEC) has already forwarded the Voter's Identification Cards (Voter's IDs) of those who registered as overseas voters for the 2016 National Elections. A Voter's Helpdesk where registered voters may claim their IDs will be opened at the Embassy beginning on Monday, 04 April 2016 from 8AM-12noon and from 1PM to 5PM.

The Embassy however notes that the IDs transmitted by COMELEC are not yet complete. Those who wish to check if their IDs are already available may view the list of available IDs from the Embassy's website www.manamape.dfa.gov.ph or view the following link: <http://manamape.dfa.gov.ph/index.php/public-advisories>.

For inquiries regarding the availability of the Voter's IDs, please call Ms. Jeannie Petrola-Ocampo or Mr. Suhod Sinsuat at telephone numbers: 1772-1234 or 3995-3235 (Sundays to Thursdays, 8AM to 5PM).
